WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

THE OPENING SENTENCES

Celebrant Blessed be our God.

People For ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, we pray you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, and given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah (52:13—53:12).

See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM (22:1-11) Please respond at the half-verse

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? * and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; * by night as well, but I find no rest.

3 Yet you are the Holy One, * enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

4 Our forefathers put their trust in you; * they trusted, and you delivered them.

5 They cried out to you and were delivered; * they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, * scorned by all and despised by the people.

7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; * they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

8 "He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; * let him rescue him, if he delights in him."

9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, * and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.

10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; * you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, * and there is none to help.

The Epistle

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews (4:14-16; 5:7-9)

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO JOHN (18:1—19:42)

The customary responses before and after the Gospel are omitted. Please sit for the first part of the Passion and, as you are able, stand at the verse that mentions the arrival at Golgatha.

THE SERMON The Rev. Dr. Warren Leibovitch

THE SOLEMN COLLECTS

All standing, the Deacon, or other person appointed, says to the people

Dear People of God: Our heavenly Father sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved; that all who believe in him might be delivered from the power of sin and death, and become heirs with him of everlasting life.

We pray, therefore, for people everywhere according to their needs.

Let us pray for the holy Catholic Church of Christ throughout the world;

For its unity in witness and service
For all bishops and other ministers and the people whom they serve For Jennifer, our Bishop, and all the people of this diocese
For all Christians in this community
For those about to be baptized

That God will confirm his Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace.

Silence

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you;
through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Let us pray for all nations and peoples of the earth, and for those in authority among them;
For Joe, the President of the United States
For the Congress and the Supreme Court
For the Members and Representatives of the United Nations
For all who serve the common good
That by God's help they may seek justice and truth, and live in peace and concord.

Silence

Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquillity your dominion may increase, until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for all who suffer and are afflicted in body or in mind;
For the hungry and the homeless, the destitute and the oppressed
For the sick, the wounded, and the crippled
For those in loneliness, fear, and anguish
For those who face temptation, doubt, and despair
For the sorrowful and bereaved
For prisoners and captives, and those in mortal danger That God in his mercy will comfort and relieve them, and grant them the knowledge of his love, and stir up in us the will and patience to minister to their needs.

Silence

Gracious God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: Let the cry of those in misery and need come to you, that they may find your mercy present with them in all their afflictions; and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them for the sake of him who suffered for us, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for all who have not received the Gospel of Christ;
For those who have never heard the word of salvation
For those who have lost their faith
For those hardened by sin or indifference
For the contemptuous and the scornful
For those who are enemies of the cross of Christ and persecutors of his disciples
For those who in the name of Christ have persecuted others
That God will open their hearts to the truth, and lead them to faith and obedience.

Silence

Merciful God, creator of all the peoples of the earth and lover of souls: Have compassion on all who do not know you as you are revealed in your Son Jesus Christ; let your Gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it; turn the hearts of those who resist it; and bring home to your fold those who have gone astray; that there may be one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us commit ourselves to our God, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that, with all who have departed this world and have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to God alone, we may be accounted worthy to enter into the fullness of the joy of our Lord, and receive the crown of life in the day of resurrection.

Silence

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquillity the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE CROSS

Cantor This is the wood of the cross, on which hung the Savior of the world.

People Come, let us worship.

THE VENERATION OF THE CROSS

(The congregation is invited forward for the veneration.)

HYMN DURING THE VENERATION, 158

1. Ah, holy Jesus, how hast thou offended, that man to judge thee hath in hate pretended?
By foes derided, by thine own rejected,
O most afflicted.

2. Who was the guilty? Who brought this upon thee?
Alas, my treason, Jesus, hath undone thee.
'Twas I, Lord Jesus, I it was denied thee:
I crucified thee.

3. Lo, the Good Shepherd for the sheep is offered;
the slave hath sinnèd, and the Son hath suffered;
for our atonement, while we nothing heeded,
God interceded.

4. For me, kind Jesus, was thy incarnation, thy mortal sorrow, and thy life's oblation;
thy death of anguish and thy bitter passion, for my salvation.

5. Therefore, kind Jesus, since I cannot pay thee,
I do adore thee, and will ever pray thee,
think on thy pity and thy love unswerving, not my deserving.

THE OFFERTORY

Funds collected from the Good Friday offering are gathered and distributed to the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East which includes the Dioceses of Jerusalem and Cyprus and the Gulf, all members of the Anglican Communion. Offering baskets are available at the entrance to the Courtyard.

CONFESSION OF SIN AND ABSOLUTION

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

People Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People Our Father...
...for ever and ever. Amen

CLOSING HYMN 168

1. O sacred head, sore wounded, defiled and put to scorn;
O kingly head, surrounded with mocking crown of thorn:
what sorrow mars thy grandeur?
Can death thy bloom deflower?
O countenance whose splendor
the hosts of heaven adore!

2. Thy beauty, long-desirèd, hath vanished from our sight;
thy power is all expirèd,
and quenched the light of light.
Ah me! for whom thou diest, hide not so far thy grace:
show me, O Love most highest,
the brightness of thy face.

3. In thy most bitter passion my heart to share doth cry, with thee for my salvation upon the cross to die.
Ah, keep my heart thus movèd to stand thy cross beneath, to mourn thee, well-belovèd, yet thank thee for thy death.

CLOSING PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

Together Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we pray you to set your passion, cross, and death between your judgment and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Give mercy and grace to the living; pardon and rest to the dead; to your holy Church peace and concord; and to us sinners everlasting life and glory; for with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The service ends with the Closing Prayer.

No blessing or dismissal is added.

SOLEMN PROCESSION OUT IN SILENCE

Please remain until the Ministers have processed out.

1. We sing the praise of him who died, of him who died upon the cross;
the sinner's hope let sin deride:
for this we count the world but loss.

2. Inscribed upon the cross we see in shining letters, God is love:
he bears our sins upon the tree:
he brings us mercy from above.

3. The cross: it takes our guilt away, and holds the fainting spirit up;
it cheers with hope the gloomy day,
and sweetens every bitter cup.

4. It makes the coward spirit brave, and nerves the feeble arm for fight;
it takes its terror from the grave,
and gilds the bed of death with light.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Easter Flowers

The COVID-19 pandemic has made it necessary to downsize our services and all things related to them, including altar flower displays. As an alternative to a large Easter array, please consider giving flowers for a specific Sunday throughout the Easter season and beyond. Should you wish to give flowers in memoriam or as a thanksgiving, we will acknowledge your dedication in the service leaflet as we have always done. Make your wishes known to Carol Berg (520-373-5770) and she will make the proper arrangements. Flower donations are $35. Let us hope that next year we will be able to fill the church with blooms for both Easter and Christmas.

Making Reservations for Attendance at Services

Reservations for seating at services are now being made—at least for the time being—through Parish Administrator Gerald Near. PLEASE NOTE: the deadline for reservations is Thursdays at 2 PM (Parish Offices are open from 8 AM until 2 PM, Monday through Thursday). Get in touch with Gerald (via email preferred) at gerald@stfrancisgvaz.org. We cannot take reservations for multiple services, just the next service scheduled. If you do not have email, call the Parish Office (520-625-1370) to make your reservation (again, no later than Thursdays at 2 PM, please). If no one is available to take your call, please leave Gerald a message to let him know the date of the service you wish to attend, the number of seats you will need, and the name(s)—both first and last—of the worshippers. If space is not available, we will give you a call back.

We're having a Shred-a-thon!

What? Are we shredding cabbage for coleslaw? Processing wood chips for mulch? No, it's paper for recycling. St. Francis is sponsoring a Shred-a-thon on Saturday, March 27, from 9 AM until NOON. Now's your chance to get safely rid of all the paper you've accumulated and are afraid to put in the trash (like old love letters, etc.). A donation of $5 per 'banker's box' (12 x 10 x 15, limit of three boxes) of paper does the job (staples and paper clips are allowed—as well as folders and envelopes—but no large metal objects, batteries, glass, or electrical items, ink cartridges or pressurized containers) and you will be able to breathe freely and stop worrying about your tax return for 1968 (when you declared a deduction for...).

Your Lenten Devotions

Walking the Labyrinth and praying the Stations of the Cross are two ways to deepen your devotional life during Lent. St. Francis is fortunate to have a large labyrinth in a beautifully landscaped environment as well as a magnificent set of Stations in our courtyard.

PLEASE NOTE: Wayne North will be leading Stations of the Cross on Wednesdays at 5 PM and Fridays at 10:30 AM. If you would like to join him please arrive a few minutes beforehand. He will be pleased to see you.

Maundy Thursday Vigil

In lieu of having the chapel open and holding the prayer vigil overnight, we are inviting people to hold a prayer vigil in their own homes on the evening of Maundy Thursday until Friday morning. We have designated times that people can sign up (more than one household may sign up for a time slot) and you may sign up for more than one time slot if you feel called to do so. We have a handout to give you for suggested practices and prayers for use during this time. Please connect with Fr. Nelson if you'd like to receive this prayer handout digitally (nelson@stfrancisgvaz.org). (You can sign up and request prayer handout online here: <https://forms.gle/hcEmMJE9RVmM5H1HA>)

Parish Events Calendar

CALLING ALL COMMITTEE AND GROUP CHAIRPERSONS: please let the Parish Administrator know of any and all upcoming meetings and events, including those regularly scheduled—i.e. recurring. Include meetings and events conveyed via Zoom as well as all in-person gatherings. As we begin to open our facilities to both Parish and outside groups, we must have an accurate calendar of events to post on our media outlets (service leaflets, newsletters, website, email). Even if you think you are currently on the calendar, please let Gerald know about what you and your group or committee have planned and/or scheduled. You can reach him via email (preferred) at gerald@stfrancisgvaz.org.

Border Ministry

You are wonderfully generous people. In the first three weeks of March you have donated more than 200 pounds of beans, pasta, rice and pasta sauce to the Community Food Band. Not only has the Outreach Committee been able to deliver all these gifts but we have also given $1000 to help purchase food. For every dollar given the Community Food Bank is able to purchase $9 worth of food so that $1000 will go a long way.

Please continue to bring your offerings of rice, beans, pasta and pasta sauce to the church. There are food baskets in the courtyard entrance for you, people to take your offerings when you drive up Saturday for your wafers and, of course, on Sunday morning as you come to church.

Tellers Needed

Our Finance Office is in need of money-counting help one or two Mondays a month from 9 until 10 AM. If you are available and able to assist, get in touch with Finance Officer Deborah at 520-625-1370.
