MORE ABOUT OUR SUNDAY PRAYERS

I've had comments and inquiries about the Consecration Prayer we are using at the Sunday eucharists. I'm glad you're noticing! One of my goals as your Interim Rector is to broaden the congregation's experience beyond Prayer A, B, C and D, and Rite One, from the Prayer Book. Across the Episcopal Church nationwide, great creativity is being shown in composing and using original prayers which follow the lessons of the liturgical year, so that themes from each Sunday's lessons reverberate as we listen to the priest consecrate the elements at the altar.

Composers of the Consecration Prayers are Canon Samuel Wells, a priest in the Church of England presently serving as Vicar of St. Martin in the Fields Parish in Trafalgar Square, London; and the Reverend Abigail Kocher, a priest in the American Episcopal Church. In their book, Eucharistic Prayers published by Eerdmans, they have created prayers for our entire three-year cycle of the liturgical year—so, about 150 prayers.

With the permission of Bishop Jennifer Reddall, we are using these beautiful prayers at St. Francis as an experiment during this Interim to broaden the congregation's experience of liturgical worship with prayers which build on the themes of each Sunday's assigned scripture. The authors permit us to use the prayers orally in worship, but not to print them in the worship bulletin. You can order this elegant collection online for about $30.

Our Prayers of the People also echo phrases from Sunday's lessons. They are composed by a gifted, creative priest and colleague of mine, Canon George Woodward. I have suspended use of the BCP forms during this Interim, but the experiment will end when a new rector begins his/her tenure at St. Francis.

In Christ's love,

Fr. Colville Smythe
Interim Rector

From our Assistant Rector...

The rock musician Grace Slick, who was in her heyday in the 1960s and 1970s, likes to say in her older years that it's not what you did that you regret, it's what you didn't do. Now, Grace did a lot of things that the rest of us might regret, but she has a point about regretting the things we haven't done.

The Confession of Sin we say every Sunday in our service of Holy Eucharist (and some of us say daily in Morning Prayer) also has something to say about things we've done and things we haven't. In it we acknowledge that we can sin both ways – by doing certain things, and by not doing other things – and we ask for God's mercy and forgiveness for both. And notice, next time you say the Confession, that we elaborate on the things we haven't done, not the things we have done, that we're sorry for. "We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves."

I've found myself reflecting a lot lately on the things I haven't done—the ways God calls me into action that I shy away from or just never get around to. When I think about them, I can see that so many of them are ways that I could have lived out loving my God and loving my neighbor. Taking action in the face of injustice. Helping someone who is sick or depressed or could just use a visit from a friend. Volunteering to take on a task that no one else has stepped up to do. Even spending time with family and friends – maintaining those important bonds.

Upon this kind of reflection, it's hard at first not to get down on yourself when you think about all the things you haven't done. There will always be many. But hidden in all this is an opportunity to turn one's response into a positive one. To think about and recognize the ways that God is calling you into action and to be intentional about how better to respond to God's call.

I've resolved to spend a little time every morning thinking about the ways that God might be calling me into action that day, so that I'm aware of when those instances arise – and I'm aware of what my instinctive responses are. So instead of just grumbling to my husband about what I read in the news, I might email my representatives or get involved with a group that's addressing the problem. If a family member asks me to do something I don't have time to do right away, I might see if I could do it later – or even say no but offer to do something else for them that I can do. I invite you, too, to think about ways that God might be calling you into action, and to practice new ways of responding in love.

Senior Warden's Notes

Early last year I came across an article in one of the national church publications that caught my interest, mainly because it focused on how we as individuals interact with those around us. Or, to be more precise, HOW WE SHOULD BE INTERACTING WITH THOSE AROUND US.

The article is actually a five-part narrative, each part telling a story of a particular person's reaction in a random situation which, by definition, occurs without warning.

I personally learned something about myself from each of the five stories, as I could then ask myself what would I have done if I were that person in that particular story.

Here are some key words or phrases to keep in mind as you read each of the five stories in this and the next four issues of the Franciscan Staff: Caring...Giving...Sharing...Gratitude...Generosity...the 3 components of stewardship: time, talent and treasure...how are we to live a respectful Christian life?

Five (5) lessons to make us think about the way we treat people and practice stewardship. (Author unknown)

Life's First Important Lesson – The Cleaning Lady

During my second month of college, our professor gave us a pop quiz. I was a conscientious student and had breezed through the questions until I read the last one: 'What is the first name of the woman who cleans the school?' Surely this was some kind of joke. I had seen the cleaning woman several times...She was tall, dark-haired and in her 50's, but how would I know her name? I handed in my paper, leaving the last question blank.

Social Activities

Save the Date! On Friday, July 26 at 5 PM in the Parish Hall we will gather for another Potluck Supper and Movie Night. The movie will be Field of Dreams, the 1989 fantasy film with Kevin Costner. An Iowa corn farmer, hearing voices, interprets them as a command to build a baseball diamond in his fields; he does, and the 1919 Chicago White Sox come to play.

Please sign up on the poster in the Parish Hall and choose the potluck item you would like to bring. Also, remember soda and lemonade will be available.

Women of the Bible

Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Jesus, Peter, Paul—there are so many men mentioned in the Bible who we feel we know so well. Their words and actions chronicled in scripture are a window into who they are. But how many of the women of the Bible do we know well? Eve? Sarah? Mary, the mother of Jesus? Mary Magdalene? What about Tamar? Jael? Naomi? Anna? Lydia? If God speaks to us through scripture, doesn't God speak to us through the women as well as the men?

The Bible is filled with wonderful ways that God used the stories of women as well as men. For three Wednesday afternoons in July, Rev. Pam will offer a class entitled God Spoke Through Her: Women of the Bible which will look at many of the female characters in both the Old and New Testaments and the ways that their words and actions made a difference in their time and continue to make a difference in our time. Join Rev. Pam on July 17, 24, and 31 from 2 to 3:30 PM in the Conference Room to hear about and discuss the important role that Biblical women play in our sacred story.

A Thank You

Dear People of St. Francis,

On behalf of the students, families, faculty, staff, and Board of Imago Dei Middle School, I thank you for the latest expression of your support for IDMS—nineteen $100 gift cards, one for each of our graduating 8th graders, presented by Wayne North and Orji Isiogu at the May 15 Baccalaureate dinner at the school. And a hearty thank you to all the "honorary grandparents" who gave generously so that these deserving scholars could have the first substantial spending money of their lives, and, of course, to Wayne for once again organizing this lovely gift.

We are also deeply grateful to Carol and David Vleck for presenting the school science awards (named to honor the late Susan Masters) earlier in the day. And we would like to thank Wayne, Carol and David, Pam and Doug, and all the other parishioners who kindly attended Commencement the next evening. It means so much to our scholars to know that the wider community cares about them and recognizes their accomplishments.

We treasure our relationship with St. Francis. Once again, thank you, and please do come visit us any time.

Head of School

Breast Cancer Survivors Support Group

Did you know that there is a Breast Cancer Survivors Support Group here at St. Francis Church? The group meets on the third Saturday of each month at 11:30 AM in the Conference Room. Breast Cancer survivors are welcome to share their experiences. The group is also open to our Greater Green Valley community. Bring a brown bag lunch if you wish. Contact Carol Lyons at 520-648-8196 for more information.

Outreach

In July Outreach will be collecting paper products (towels, toilet paper, Kleenex) toothpaste and soap, and in August cereal (no Cheerios, please), and breakfast foods. Please bring your donations to the Parish Hall and deposit them in the box labeled 'Food Bank.' There are Food Bank baskets placed in the Narthex and at the entrance to the Chapel too, so let's fill them all up!

Diocesan Adult Camp

Adult Camp is a delightful summer retreat for adults over the age of 40. It's like the summer camp fun of your childhood with all of the amenities of a hotel!

The theme this year is "Wisdom for the Long Walk of Faith," and the keynote speaker will be Bishop Jennifer Reddall. Camp would not be camp without afternoon activities like Tai Chi, arts and crafts, kayaking, as well as spiritual and musical choices. In the evenings, campers will enjoy a campfire, s'mores, talent show, snacks and adult beverages. As always, you can participate in as little or as much as you want while at Adult Camp!

Pricing Includes: Linen Room (hotel-style accommodations), $395. Includes 3 nights and 4 days, 9 meals, evening hospitality, program materials, activities, linens and towels.

Bunk Lodging (bring your sleeping bag), $305. includes 3 nights and 4 days, 9 meals, evening hospitality, program materials and activities

Commuter Rate (staying offsite), $185. Includes 9 meals, evening hospitality, program materials and activities

Camp and Accommodations are ADA accessible.

Rector Search Process

The members of the Rector Search Committee,—Mary Beth Bates, David Dunn, Janice Hall, Orji Isigogu, Bernie Ravenelle, Roger Williams, and Connie Wilt—have been meeting together for several months under the direction of BrandE Faupell, Committee Chair, and Kim DeMarco, Associate Chair.

A good deal of research has been put forth by the committee to develop several documents required by the Diocese, which subsequently are used to formally announce that St. Francis is actively seeking a new Rector.

One document is the Office for Transition Ministry's Ministry Portfolio, which provides interested candidates for the position of Rector at St. Francis, with a detailed description of St. Francis, its history, and the role we play in serving our parishioners, our community, and our dreams for the future. It easily tells a candidate if they would be a good fit with St. Francis. This document has been posted and candidate's names are being submitted. The general public does not have access to documents posted on this site.

A second document is the Parish Profile, which tells the St. Francis story in both words and pictures, focusing on what it is like to be a member of our faith community, how we serve the Lord, how we serve each other's needs and desires, and how we live as "Christ's heart and hands in the world." This Parish Profile is now a part of the St. Francis web site and can be found at: <https://www.stfrancisgvaz.org/rector-search.html>. A much smaller version of the Parish Profile is a tri-fold brochure now in production, that will be used now and well into the future to tell the "St. Francis Story."

As you are reading this the Committee is busy with preparations to begin interviewing candidates, whose names will come directly from the Diocese, following an initial screening process. Should you have a name of a potential candidate, please forward that person's name directly to the Diocese, to the attention of the Canon to the Ordinary.

For Prayer Chain requests contact Jim Ratley at 253-365-5093 or, via email, at ijnrats@gmail.com.

Home Communion

If you or someone you know would like to have a home visit or the Sacrament brought to you at home, please let Deacon Becky Williamson know by calling her at 480-204-0022 (or via email at 1beckyw@cox.net). We are happy to bring the Sacrament to those who are ill or to anyone who cannot attend services for any reason.

Reserving Meeting Time and Space at Saint Francis

Individuals wishing to reserve meeting space at St. Francis and/or discuss room set-ups should make those arrangements through Administrative Assistant Bethel Klein. It is essential your meeting be logged into the Master Calendar. If you need it, be sure to ask for 'set-up' and 'clean-up' time as part of your booking.

One week prior to your event please inventory the pantry next to the kitchen and let Bethel know if there are enough supplies to meet your needs. A parishioner usually shops for us twice a month. Thanks for your help and cooperation.

Getting Your Event into Parish Publications

Sunday Bulletin notices should be given to the Parish Administrator by NOON the Tuesday prior to the Sunday you wish the notice to appear. Notices should be in written form and sent via email whenever possible.

Franciscan Staff material should be given to the Parish Administrator NO LATER THAN the 10th of the month preceding publication.
