From our Interim Rector . . .

CARE AND FEEDING OF A NEW RECTOR

Your new rector will be neither a household pet nor a hothouse flower; but your care for him, and your cultivation of warm and supportive relationships with him and his family, will get him off to an effective and successful rectorship at St. Francis. Here's what you can do: Seek out members of your Search Committee and Vestry. Thank them for their year of faithful and diligent work to bring you a new rector well suited to support St. Francis as it is today, and to help you create the St. Francis which is to be.

Your rector wants to learn your name. And he will appreciate your help because not every rector is gifted at learning 500 new names right away. You are already in the habit of wearing your name tag on Sundays. Good job! That helps others as well as the rector get to know you! A greeting at the church door after Sunday service won't be enough to etch your name in his memory. But a personal visit in his office will! An invitation to visit in your home will! An appointment to discuss your ministry will!

Your new rector is bringing his family to live in Southern Arizona. Relocation is always a challenge—especially for a spouse and children. Get to know the family. Listen for the family's questions and needs, and for how they like to be involved with church. They are making a fresh start in Green Valley, and you can help them create a happy home here.

Search Committee and Vestry members: You have worked hard and well this year; now there is one more vital step you can take to help your new rector succeed at St. Francis. Create a committee of four to eight people, including some of your members, to meet at least quarterly with your rector and his spouse, to hear how things are going with his ministry among you, and for his family. Is he making clergy friends and feeling supported by the Diocesan staff? How is the family adjusting to life in the desert? Can he find his way around Tucson? This will be a convivial afternoon or evening event with a meal, careful listening, candor, positive observations, and laughter. At the same time, it is an informal evaluation which identifies and addresses issues before they become Problems.

The Search Committee and Vestry have done a great job of bringing you a fine person to be your shepherd and spiritual guide at St. Francis. Now you have the joy of nourishing his productive ministry among you.

In Christ's love,

From our Assistant Rector...

"Above all, maintain constant love for one another..."

1 Peter 4:8

A wise mentor during my years of formation for the priesthood once told me that to be a good priest the most important thing for you to do is to love your people. If that's true—and I think it is—I must have been a good priest here at St. Francis, because I fell in love with all of you right away. And I have loved you every day since.

By now, most of you have received the word that I will be leaving you shortly. If you don't receive email communications from the church, then this will be news to you. I indicated at the beginning of this year that my intention was to stay at St. Francis after Fr. Dan retired, through the interim period, as you all searched for a new rector. The search has gone well and has moved along rather quickly, so there is hope that a new rector will be on board before the end of the year—perhaps even a month or more before year's end. As I saw the search moving along, I felt compelled to start looking for where my next ministry might be. My efforts produced fruit rather quickly, and about a month ago I accepted a new position beginning January 1. Since Doug and I need some time to make some personal life adjustments before the position starts, I have decided to leave St. Francis on November 1.

I wish that I could tell you at this point where I will be going next and what I will be doing. I'm not at liberty to share that right now. But I will let you all know as soon as I am free to. It should be fairly soon—I promise! Please be patient, knowing that I cannot break confidences that I've been asked to keep.

My heart is heavy as I contemplate leaving St. Francis and all of you. This, of course, is the price one pays when one opens one's heart to another. You are all very dear to me, and I will carry you in my heart as I follow God's call into another phase of my ministry. But I take comfort from the knowledge that you will all continue to maintain constant love for one another, as a family in Christ. I know that you will welcome a new rector with open arms, and, if he or she chooses to hire a new assistant, that you will shower love on that person the way you have on me. You are special people.

May God bless you and keep you all. I look forward to these last weeks with you as part of the St. Francis family, sharing the love that has grown and deepened between us over these past three years together.

Senior Warden's Notes

As I indicated in my Senior Warden's Notes in our two most recent issues of the Franciscan Staff, I recently came across an article in one of the national church publications, which caught my interest mainly because the article's five short stories focused on how we interact with those around us in our everyday lives.

And in a more positive sense, how it is so easy for us to miss opportunities to have a positive influence on the lives of friends and strangers. When we take the lessons learned from these five stories and pair them with the every-day practice of our most common forms of stewardship, we achieve a better understanding of how we can influence the lives of those around us in a more positive light.

Life's Third Important Lesson - Always remember those who serve . . .

In the days when an ice cream sundae cost much less, a 10-year-old boy entered a hotel coffee shop and sat at a table. A waitress put a glass of water in front of him.

"How much is an ice cream sundae?" he asked. "Fifty cents," replied the waitress. The little boy pulled his hand out of his pocket and studied the coins in it. "Well, how much is a plain dish of ice cream?" he inquired. By now more people were waiting for a table and the waitress was growing impatient. "Thirty-five cents," she brusquely replied. The little boy again counted his coins. "I'll have the plain ice cream," he said.

The waitress brought the ice cream, put the bill on the table and walked away. The boy finished the ice cream, paid the cashier and left. When the waitress came back, she began to cry as she wiped down the table. There, placed neatly beside the empty dish, were two nickels and five pennies.

You see, he couldn't have the sundae because he had to have enough left to leave her a tip.

In today's economy, especially the service sector, we often find ourselves with opportunities to reward service provided. Personally, I've adopted a generous minimum percentage, which I apply to reward the level of service I expect to receive. My wish is that you have adopted a similar philosophy by which to reward service received.

The lesson I believe I've identified through this story is the lesson of "expressing gratitude." My question of you: is this the lesson you identify with? And does this also identify as a "stewardship" moment in our lives.

A thought to share with others . . .

"Life isn't about waiting for the Storm to pass...It's about learning to Dance in the Rain"

Wayne North, Senior Warden

On Stewardship

On occasion I follow the blogs posted by the Institute of Faith, Works, and Economics. Just the title of the organization itself intrigues me – Economics alongside Faith?? And so I read some of the ideas, and enjoy thinking about stewardship from different points of view. Hugh Whelchel, the Director of IFWE, wrote in November 2012 that many Christians think about stewardship as being the budget and the building programs. And that happened to me recently when I asked if someone would join the Stewardship Ministry – the answer was "I don't know how to raise money." Bingo – at one level our first thought is "its all about the money." And of course it so much more than that. It's about our God-given, irreplaceable resources too – what we are able to do, offer, assist with (our talents), and its especially about our time. If we all added up the amount of time people give to St. Francis and the MANY ministries we provide, even at a minimum wage it could easily equal hundreds of thousands of dollars a year if we had to pay someone to fulfill our mission of being Christ's heart and hands in the world. And we are able to do so much because of the generosity you provide in so many ways.

In that November article, four principles of stewardship are enumerated (based on another article by Bill Peel, as referenced in the IFWE blog). The first is the Principle of Ownership – who owns what we have? Who made it possible that we have the knowledge and skills to get all the stuff in our lives? The second principle is Responsibility. If we are not the owners and God has given this to us, do we have rights as owners or responsibilities as stewards of those gifts? Then there is Principle 3: Accountability. For the most part, we have been given much and, as the old saying goes, "much will be expected of us." At some point, I believe we will be called to account for how we have treated others as ourselves, and to account for how we have spent any riches poured upon us. Lastly is Principle 4: Reward. We are serving as Christ's heart and hands in the world. We often don't expect an earthly reward. Yet as Matthew 25:21 states "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness."

So for all you have done for St. Francis, thank you. For all of you who have served, thank you. For all of you who have shared your resources, thank you.

Brand E Faupell, Stewardship Ministry Chair

Save the Date!

You will want to mark Friday, November 8, 5:30 PM, on your calendar so you won't miss the annual St. Francis GRATITUDE DINNER. And watch for your annual Estimate of Giving packet, soon to be coming your way.

Annual Homecoming Party

Fall approaches and our many parishioners are returning to Green Valley (AKA God's Country) for the Winter. So come to the Homecoming Party on Friday, October 25, at 5 PM in the Parish Hall. We will be having Philly cheese steak, pizza from Two Girls Pizzeria, grilled hot dogs, and lots of side dishes and, of course, ice cream sandwiches. What a deal at $12 per person! Please sign up in the Parish Hall (we also need your $12 at that time). For more information email Sandy Eckstein at seckste2@gmail.com.

St. Francis Parish Choir

Parish Choir Rehearsals – Our Fall Choir season has begun and we are looking for singers in all sections of the ensemble; if you would like to join this congenial group, get in touch with Music Director Gerald Near through the Parish Office (625-1370) or via email at gerald@stfrancisgvaz.org. Rehearsals are held Thursdays at 2 PM in the Choir Loft.

Outreach

Our Outreach project for October continues to be collecting gift bags for the elderly for distribution through Valley Assistance Services. If you have a filled gift bag, now's the time to bring it in. As always your donations are very much appreciated.

Mark Your Calendars

On Friday, November 15, the Saint Clare Chapter of The Order of the Daughters of the King will sponsor a Quiet Day of reflection on the life and teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila. All are welcome. Watch the Sunday bulletins for more details, or email judy.turberg@gmail.com.

Annual Blessing of Animals

All pets are welcome - and their humans, too (provided they are well behaved). Even if you don't have an animal in your life, come and join the fun: Saturday, October 5, at 10 AM in the Church.

St. Francis in the Valley 2019 Tour of Homes

Our Tour of Homes is the major fund raising project for St. Francis Church. Six homes are selected for their unique or exceptional qualities. Transportation to the homes is provided by volunteer drivers and, in the Parish Hall, where our guests buy tickets and register, we serve light refreshments and provide a wonderful Gourmet Shop and a Silent Auction. All this is manned by volunteers, who bake, serve, clean up, find items to sell, and sell tickets to our guests. The profits are donated to area not-for profits in concert with our Outreach Committee. Some of the recipients have been Cruzando Fronteras, Friends in Deed, Green Valley Fire Corps, Community Food Bank, Green Valley, Reunion House, Youth on their Own, and Valley Assistance Services.

Our 2020 Tour of Homes, under the leadership of Julie Reppenhagen, is in the process of assembling the Tour of Homes Leadership Team and selecting the homes. The tour will take place on Friday March 6, 2020. If you know of a home that you think would be an interesting part of the Tour, please contact Julie (jrepp@snet.net).

Our current Tour of Homes Team members are:

Publicity: Paula Altamirano; Ticket Sales: Cheryl Tardy-Albin; Treasurer: Deborah Harby; Home Tour Hosts/Hostesses: Penny Philips and Marie LeRoy; Photos, Signs, Print materials: Neal Hursh; Transportation: David Dunn; Silent Auction: Sandy Eckstein and Penelope Williams; Outdoor Signage: Bob Swendrzynski; Home Safety Check: David and Carol Vleck; Announcers: Reg Kahrmanis and Bob Bates; Kitchen: Ginny Arundel; Gourmet Table: Mark Eckstein.

If you would like to get involved, please contact Julie Reppenhagen at jrepp@snet.net . We will begin recruiting for volunteers beginning in November. There are lots of fun things to do in all the areas, so we look forward to your help.

Julie Reppenhagen, Chair

Solo Journey Group

Mark your calendars for Friday, October 18, 3 to 6 PM, when we will get together for an open house at the home of Larry Bear, 742 E. Armor Springs Place. If you can, bring a hors d'oeuvre to share (wine will be provided). Please join your fellow solo friends for an afternoon of enjoyment and conversation. We will also discuss future gathering plans.

Afternoon Tea

Join us on Sunday, October 13, at 2:30 PM in the Parish Hall for Afternoon Tea with the Bridgers.

The Very Reverend Francis William Bridger is the Dean of Brechin in the Scottish Episcopal Church and will address "The Church of England's Misstep: How may we Avoid it?" And The Rev. Helen Bridger, who is the Associate Rector for Broughty Ferry will share some of their experience in the Episcopal Church of Scotland.

Meet our guests and take a break from everyday cares with an opportunity to relish in simple, sensory delights. We will have hand-selected teas, finger sandwiches and delightful treats. Please sign up in the Parish hall and include a guest from the community to accompany you. Monetary donations are being accepted, if you'd like to contribute.

If you have tea cups and teapots we can borrow for that day please bring them into the Parish kitchen and place them in cabinet so designated. And don't forget to mark the bottoms of your donated tea wares.

Lay Eucharistic Ministers

We are always in need of new LEMs. Come and participate as a Lay Eucharistic Minister in this time-honored tradition, or if you or a loved one would like to request a visit, please contact Deacon Becky Williamson at 480-204-0022 or, via email, at 1beckyw@cox.net. If you would like to train to become a part of this important ministry Becky would be happy to train you and add you to our active visitor list

Cruzando Fronteras

HERE'S WHAT'S NEEDED NOW

Our diocesan border ministry, Cruzando Fronteras, is so grateful for the faithful support it receives from St. Francis! Current needs: toilet paper •soaps •shampoo •razors •bed sheets •towels •feminine products •diapers (all sizes) •baby wipes •sandals/flip flops •shorts •sneakers •undergarments (all sizes) •socks •backpacks •coloring books (child and adult) •crayons/pens/coloring pencils/notebooks for ESL class •peanut butter/jelly •snacks/snack bars •rice/beans (pinto), cereals, oatmeal. Could you help provide some of these? Collection boxes are in the southeast corner of the Parish Hall.

As always, funds are also a priority need. If you can provide monetary assistance, donate through the Cruzando Fronteras webpage at fronteras.azdiocese.org, or drop a check made out to St. Francis with "Cruzando Fronteras" in the memo line in the offering plate or at the Parish Office.
