THE WORD OF GOD

THE FIRST READING

Our First Reading tells the story of the Holy Spirit filling the apostles and empowering them to share the message of the gospel with people of different languages. A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (2:1-21).

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM (104:25-35, 37)

(Please respond following the asterisk.)

- 25 O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all; the earth
is full of your creatures.
- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
- 27 There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, * which you have made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it; * you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

- 30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; * and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.
- 33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- 37 Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

THE SECOND READING

In our Second Reading we hear that when we are moved by God's Spirit, we become God's children and heirs with Christ. A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans (8:14-17).

All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ--if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 493

O for a thousand tongues to sing

The Gospel: John 14:8-17

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON The Rev. Canon Colville Smythe

Please stand as you are able

THE NICENE CREED Prayer Book 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Lector: On the Day of Pentecost as your people gathered in prayer the sound of a violent rushing wind filled the house, and divided tongues of fire appeared upon them; so fill us with your Holy Spirit, and make us open to the new work you are doing in our time:

People: Send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

Lector: Even as the prophet Joel prophesied: "God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your young men see visions, and your old men dream dreams," so mark us with the signs of your presence, for all who call on the Name of the Lord shall be saved:

People: Send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

Lector: We have received a spirit of adoption whereby your Spirit bears witness with our spirits that we are children of God and joint heirs with Christ; so make us also able to join our sufferings to the sufferings of our Lord, and to be glorified with him:

People: Send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

Lector: We celebrate this day the formation of your Church on earth for your continued work and witness. Reprove us where we are slothful or in error, and encourage us in those things we are doing right, that we may more and more hew to the way of Jesus our Savior and reveal his mercy in the world:

People: Send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

Lector: As the Father is in Christ, and Christ in the Father, so establish the members of your Church in Christ that we may also reside in the Father, abiding with Christ, and doing Christ's works after him:

People: Send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

Lector: Send us the Advocate and guide to teach us evermore, and grant us your own peace, that our hearts may no longer be afraid or troubled, but made firm for the work you have set before us:

People: Send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

CONFESSION OF SIN AND ABSOLUTION

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor. (The People may stand or kneel.)

People: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People: Amen.

THE PEACE

All stand. The Celebrant says to the people

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

By your light O Lord, draw to us those with vision and passion for St. Francis' future.

Guide them as they discern your call. Raise up for us a faithful pastor, a dynamic preacher of your Gospel, to shepherd us as your flock, strengthen our ministries, and work with us in building up your kingdom.

•RECTOR SEARCH UPDATE – The Search Committee has been hard at work, meeting weekly since February. After the Day of Discovery, they took the information gathered and began completing a 12-question form for what is called the Office of Transitional Ministry. The Search Committee worked on these questions for the last 9 weeks, and has turned the form in to the Vestry, which gives final approval and sends it forward to the Diocese. The last item to be completed is the Parish Profile. The committee has been working on the Profile for the last few weeks and it is almost ready for Vestry approval. Once approved, it will also be sent to the Diocese, and that is when we expect applications to start arriving. At that point, parishioners can also have access to the profile via the St. Francis website. If you see any of the members of the committee in church, please thank them for all the efforts they are putting into the search!
